

LCP

Leadership
Capacity Program

Confidentiality Agreement for Certification Training

Welcome to the LCP® Coaches Training!

The certification process for becoming a certified LCP leadership coach involves a collaborative partnership between the certified LCP master trainer(s), existing certified LCP coaches, and those attending the training to begin the certification process.

Your acceptance of this Confidentiality Agreement confirms that –

1. You will show respect to each participant to help foster an open and transparent environment necessary to create and experience a professional coaching setting.
2. All personal information shared by each participant during the training will be kept in strict confidence, and will not be disclosed to any other person or organisation, at any time, without the consent of the relevant person(s) involved. All LCP Coaches those applying for certification acknowledge and agree to honour the International Coach Federation (ICF) Code of Ethics (<http://coachfederation.org/ethics>) including professional conduct, confidentiality, and conflicts of interest.
3. You acknowledge that each person's LCP Journal may contain propriety information that is highly confidential and sensitive, and not to be discussed without the consent of the relevant person(s).

Your signature represents your acceptance of these terms and conditions.

Print Name:

Date:

Signed: