The Sheltered Guide 03/04/2021

Greetings Alliance Members,

We are continuing our series on various program models by taking a deep dive into transitional housing programs. Transitional housing is often an important next step for a survivor to be fully independent, so we have gathered the following resources to support you!

- An Evaluation of Transitional Housing Programs in Illinois for Victims of Domestic Violence and/or Human Trafficking (Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority, 2019)
- Innovative Approaches to Transitional Housing for Survivors of VAW (Women's Shelters Canada, 2020) approximately one hour webinar
- Transitional Housing Program Fact Sheet and Transitional Housing: Models & Rent Structures (Department of Justice, 2018)
- Transitional Housing Toolkit (NNEDV, 2019-2020)
 - Housing Models and Rent Structures
 - Trauma-informed Advocacy and Service
 - Guide for Policy and Form Creation or Revision

Learn more about some of the amazing transitional housing programs within the NTSA community below!

Wings of Refuge works to serve adult female survivors of sex trafficking by providing a safe environment for survivors to heal and create a new life. They focus their work on 4 key actions to ending trafficking: reach, recover, restore, and rise. Learn more here.

Refuge for Women runs their Transitional Living Home for graduates of their own program or similar rehabilitation/recovery programs. This program gives survivors additional support including counseling, financial savings, accountability. Learn more here.
