

Terms and Conditions for Becoming a Certified LCP® Leadership

Coach

Being certified means you have been trained to use the LCP Leadership Coaching Framework, its support systems, and are licensed to buy and use LCP for your immediate clients in the country in which you were certified. You are not able to certify others to buy and use LCP from you for use with their immediate clients. Your certification extends internationally, however, LCP will need to be purchased from the LCP licensed distributor within the country or region you are coaching (if one is available). Please contact us if you need to find your local distributor.

Use of LCP Trademark

If you agree to the terms and conditions of this certification agreement, you are permitted to say that you are LCP certified and can use the LCP leadership coaching framework. If you use the registered trademark beyond this context, then it will need to be clear that LCP is a registered trademark of LCP Global Pty Ltd.

For business card and promotional purposes, for example, you are permitted to describe yourself as: “Certified LCP Leadership Coach”

- Attend at least four (4) of the ten (10) LCP coaching webinars conducted each year.
- Hold professional indemnity insurance.
- Authorise LCP to request feedback from your clients to ensure quality standards are met.

LCP is committed to providing you with a high standard of service to ensure you and your clients have a positive experience of LCP and are able to realise its benefits. In view of this, we will:

- Efficiently process your purchase of individual user-licences for use with your clients within 24 hours.
- Let you know when product and technology updates will be available.
- Value your feedback (admin@lcponline.net).
- Continue to honour the confidentiality of your clients as per our privacy agreement (<https://outwardlooking.com/privacy-policy/>).
- Provide additional support and resources on our website to assist you in the use of LCP with your clients through a personal login.
