“I prepared myself for the tahajjud prayer. I wanted to ask God about many things. I had a strong faith that whatever I ask for that night, God would listen to me and give me his answer. I prayed according to the memorized verses. Then something in my heart seemed to break, and I cried out to God.

“God, in my heart of hearts, I want to please you more than anything. Show me the way and I will follow you wherever you lead. But if you don’t show me the way tonight, don’t blame me for what happens. Don’t blame me for living the way I choose. But if you show me who you are and what you want from me, then I’ll follow you wherever you lead.”

“At that moment, a bright light began to appear in front of me. It took the form of a figure, a man in a white robe. I couldn’t see the details of his face, but his presence was somehow calm and reassuring. And suddenly, without knowing how, I realized he was Jesus, and he said, “Follow me.”

“I was very confused because I thought, Lord, I’m a Muslim. How can I follow you? You’re the one that people call the God of the Christians, the God of the infidels who don’t know Allah. He waited for me to come to him. Tears began to cover my face, and finally I said, “God, if this is the way of truth, than I want to follow you.”

“At that moment, I felt a peace I had never felt before. I saw him smiling, and then he slowly left. I’ll never be the same. I’ve never been the same since that day.”
