

PDP Plan Development Overview

PDP Plan Development

A service provided by independent contractors through SPED Homeschool

Your Path to Success Begins Here

PDP Intake Form

This initial form will help your PDP provider evaluate your student's present levels of performance.

PDP Video Consultation

Your assigned provider will review your intake form and schedule a video call to finish compiling your PDP information.

PDP Plan Delivery

Once your PDP provider thoroughly reviews your intake form and meets with you on your video call, you will receive a working copy of your student's PDP.

Amy Vickrey

Amy knows special education inside and out from her extensive work as a classroom teacher before homeschooling and through her master's degree work in both special education and learning diagnostics. She now homeschools her two sons as well as runs a homeschool business that offers special needs testing, homeschool classes and consulting.

Stephanie Bulkwalter

Stephanie Bulkwalter is a mom of 5. She's homeschooled for over 17 years and has taught all twelve grades and every level from gifted to mild and moderate special needs. Stephanie is also the creator of ELARP Learning and a co-host on Empowering Homeschool Conversations.
