Did You Know Pastors Birthed America?

Thomas W. Jacobson, Global Life Campaign

The political founding fathers of the United States of America believed so strongly in certain “self-evident” “truths” that they risked their “Lives . . . Fortunes, and . . . sacred Honor” to build a new nation based on those truths. These self-evident truths included “certain unalienable Rights” that “are endowed by their Creator” upon all mankind. The foremost of these God-given inherent rights are “Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness” (= a right relationship with God and people). These sacred rights include freedom of conscience, freedom of religion, freedom of speech, and the right to establish a lawful and limited civil government that would “secure these rights” to them (Declaration of Independence).

Where did they get these ideas? No such nation with these foundations existed.

They got the ideas from their pastors, who got the ideas from the Bible. The pastors were the true Founding Fathers of the United States. In their churches, in town hall meetings (held in their churches), in Election Day sermons, and in sermons before assemblies of public officials, the pastors taught the self-evident truths that became the foundation of our nation, our national charter (Declaration of Independence), and our United States Constitution.

You can discover for yourself the real history of the founding of the USA. The newly published Fire At The Founding documents the influence of the 1700s clergy in their own words through profound but short excerpts from their sermons.

So that you can understand where these pastors got their ideas, and give a sermon series, or lead a small group study, this second edition includes a Bible study, questions for contemplation or discussion, and a 3-5 point sermon outline at the end of the chapters.

The book is available through GLC Publications (highest return to the GLC), the publisher, WestBow Press (second highest return to GLC), Amazon, Barnes & Noble, etc. It is currently available in paperback, hardback, eBook and Kindle formats, and the audiobook should be completed by next month.

PRAY that many pastors and Christians will follow in the noble steps of the 1700s clergy by buying, reading, studying, giving sermons and teachings, and leading small study groups to restore the foundations of our faith and our nation.

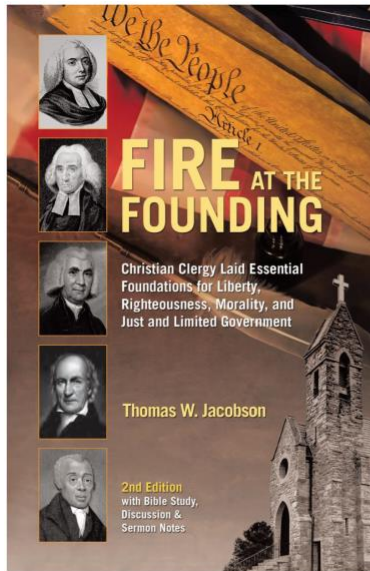

For the LORD, the sacred gift of life, and remembrance of the babies,
