

Confidentiality Agreement for Certification Training

Welcome to the LCP® Certification Workshop!

The certification process for becoming an LCP-certified leadership coach/consultant involves a collaborative partnership between the certified LCP® master trainer(s), existing LCP-certified coaches, and those attending the training to begin the certification process.

Your acceptance of this Confidentiality Agreement confirms that –

1. You will show respect to each participant to help foster an open and transparent environment necessary to create and experience a professional coaching setting.
2. All personal information shared by each participant during the training will be kept in strict confidence, and will not be disclosed to any other person or organisation, at any time, without the consent of the relevant person(s) involved.

You acknowledge that each person's LCP® Journal may contain propriety information that is highly confidential and sensitive, and not to be discussed without the consent of the relevant person(s).

3. All coaches applying for LCP-certification, acknowledge and agree to honour the International Coach Federation (ICF) Code of Ethics (<http://coachfederation.org/ethics>) including professional conduct, confidentiality, and conflicts of interest.

Your signature represents your acceptance of these terms and conditions.
