Abortion on Demand in USA
Rabbi Cahn speaks to current state of USA

Thomas W. Jacobson, Global Life Campaign

On 5 September 2023, Rabbi Jonathan Cahn was interviewed by Terry Meeuwssen on CBN's 700 Club. What he said was profound and stunning, enabling us in the United States to understand what GOD is doing and how we should respond. You can view the interview at this link, starting at 37:36: <https://secure.cbn.com/partners/video/shows/the700club/6336622745112>. Here is the transcript:

Rabbi Jonathan Cahn: "This mystery of the Jubilee (in his new book, The Josiah Manifesto) really opens up what has been happening in America, where we are, and where we are going."

Terry Meeuwssen: "We came through 3 years of Covid, and you really look at the symbol of that, the history of that kind of tribulation. Talk about that."

Rabbi Cahn: "There is a mystery in the Bible. One is the Jubilee. In the 50th year, everything reverses and goes back. The other one is what a nation or culture does to their children. If you shed the blood of the children, it is going to come back. If you take life, it's coming back. One of the forms it says it will come back in Hebrew is 'davere-gadoh,' which means a great plague or pandemic. Now when did America really begin shedding the blood of its children? It was actually 1970. That's when abortion on demand came. What is the 50th year, the Year of Jubilee? It is 2020, the year when the plague came. Now it gets even more stunning. The actual day that abortion began its entrance was in the New York Legislature with a bill on January 20, 1970. Go 50 years later, January 20, 2020, that's the exact day that the plague enters the land (USA). You have the children . . . 50 years, a Jubilee to the exact day. Remember the day when everything fell, when Trump (spoke), and there was the quarantine and the lockdowns? It was March 11. It was called the day that everything changed. That's when everything fell. Go back 50 years. March 11, 1970, anything happen? That was the actual day that abortion (on demand) began in America. It was 50 years to the exact day, again."

Terry: "When I read your books, I wonder, how does he know that? How do you correlate over decades what happened in a meaningful way to the Jewish community (in Biblical times) and then to what is happening today?"

Rabbi Cahn: "It's like The Harbinger. I can't reproduce how that happens. It's like the LORD leads me from one thing to the next thing and the next thing. I could never reproduce it. Like, for example, when this all happened, in the first 3 years with abortion, 1970 to Roe v. Wade, 1973, how many children were killed: 1.3 million. 50 year later, there is another 3-year period, 2020 to 2023, it's the plague. How many people were killed? 1.3 million. The exact same number. This is a Biblical principle. But GOD is real, and you can't mock Him. But this also leads to hope too. Even Trump is in this. Even January 6 is in this mystery. There is an ancient calendar that lies behind all these things that are happening in our time. It not only gives what is going to happen, but it gives the exact dates. That includes Trump. That includes everything."

Terry: "Before we get to the hope, talk a little about where America is at today because I think for a lot of us, we are deeply concerned about values that have changed, about morality, about spirituality in our country that has changed. Where are we and what are you seeing?"

Rabbi Cahn: "This is why I knew I had to write this book now. There are all sorts of mysteries, but they are all coming together. What we've been watching, we've been part of this gigantic mystery. It's all coming together to open up a revelation, I believe, the LORD is giving of where we are right now, where we are heading, how to prepare for it, how to be strong. The thing is it is all leading to this Josiah moment. That's why (the book) is called The Josiah Manifesto. The Josiah moment is when a nation that has known GOD, has fallen from GOD, and is on the verge of judgment on the one hand, on the other hand, GOD is giving a chance for revival. That's Josiah. That's linked to that time. That's where we are right now. That's what this is showing. We are at this critical time. This is life or death. Without revival, there is no hope. Revival is our hope. But GOD is never finished. GOD is giving us a way . . . The last 100 pages of The Josiah Manifesto is about what do we do. Is GOD actually revealing what to do, and how to stand, and how to overcome, and how we actually touch this world, not only for this hour but for the Last Days? It's all coming together to that."

Terry: "Even the action of what to do is often a miraculous gift from the LORD, as in Josiah's time. The likelihood of him, a king who followed the ways of GOD, was impossible."

Rabbi Cahn: "You are absolutely right. His father was horrible. His grandfather was horrible. Despite that, he went against the flow of his times. One of the things about this Manifesto, the secrets are with Him because GOD gave that. There is a way to resist what is happening. There is a way to stand against the darkness. He (Josiah) actually broke the altars down. We have the power to break altars of evil in this culture and also in our lives. So he was revolutionary. One of the things about the Manifesto is that it is time to be revolutionary. GOD will give us. He is never finished. And the best could be yet to come for us, regardless of what happens in the world. But He wants us to stand strong like Josiah did."

Terry: "Talk about the shofar and its prominence in all of this."

Rabbi Cahn: “The shofar is the sound of GOD’s power. We were in Washington, DC, and GOD led us do the Return. It turned out that was on the ancient calendar. It is called the Day of the Return on GOD’s calendar. We didn’t know it. It’s about repentance. Well, that same day, Trump decides to nominate Amy Barrett, which is going to be the vote that is going to overturn Roe v. Wade. On that day it began, when we are praying for that. So I said, the power of GOD, let’s have the shofar blow, and we are going to proclaim the power of GOD. They sound the shofar. That very second, that very day, at the same moment, Trump opens his mouth and begins the overturning of abortion, to the sound of the shofar. GOD’s power, of Jericho. GOD is alive. GOD is real. And GOD is our GOD.”
